Notable work

Chhotto Bubul ar Porira

Bubul plays the flute. And as the night grows, flights of birds gather near the fountain. And along with the birds come the fairies. They spread their wings and dance to Bubul's tune. And then something happens.

Tinni aar Masir Galppogacha

Little Tinni talks to her Mashi. They speak about the seas and the oceans and the rivers. Mashi's folklores merge with Tinni's learning from her texts.

Mou er Bondhura

Mou is on her way to school. She meets and greets friends on the way. But who are her friends?

Swapno Kenar Sadagar

A string of thirteen stories unfold the world of folktales and fairytales. The stories have the shakchunni, raj puttur, fairies and the rajas, and also of the common people and poverty.

Icchamoti

There are 27 short stories. Icchamoti, the first one gives the book its name. It is the story of a mother's penance to get her daughter to speak. Her daughter cannot speak and the mother sets on a pilgrimage.
