

Writer Shanta Gokhale honoured with lifetime achievement award at Tata Literature Live

Publication - The Hindu

Publish Date - 18 Nov 2019

Page view per user* - 1.80

View Link

Source - Bureau

Word count - 349

Website rank* - 1249

Edition - Online Web

Reach per million* - 600.00

Language - English

Page view per million* - 26.00

View Text

(* Powered By Alexa)

Renowned writer and playwright Shanta Gokhale was on Sunday presented the lifetime achievement award at Tata Literature Live for her work, which has made a significant impact in the Indian literary field.

The 10th 'Tata Literature Live! The Mumbai LitFest' culminated with an awards ceremony on Sunday.

"I feel honoured to be a Lifetime awardee of Tata Literature Live. It is a grand encouragement for me to go on writing and thinking. I am often asked about writing in English and Marathi. Both languages have a rhythm and cadence of their own," Ms. Gokhale said after receiving the award.

Recipient of the Sangeet Natak Akademi Award, Ms. Gokhale is a multi hyphenate personality. She recently published her memoirs, One Foot on the Ground: A Life Told Through the Body.

The literary awards were also announced at the finale ceremony.

In the fiction space, the first book award was given to The Far Field by Madhuri Vijay (HarperCollins) and book of the year award went to The City and the Sea by Raj Kamal Jha (Penguin Random House).

Also read | 'The Far Field' review: A postcard in red and gold

The first book award in the non-fiction category was given to A Stranger Truth: Lessons in Love, Leadership and Courage from India's Sex Workers by Ashok Alexander (Juggernaut) and book of the year award went to Early Indians: The Story of Our Ancestors and Where We Came From by Tony Joseph (Juggernaut).

Also read | 'Early Indians' review: Who we are and where do we come from

The business book of the year award went to Leapfrogging to Pole-vaulting: Creating the Magic of Radical and Sustainable Transformation by Raghunath Mashelkar and Ravi Pandit (Penguin Random House).

Penguin Random House got publisher of the year award.

Tata Trusts' big little book award for authors in Hindi Children's Literature went to Prabhat and the big little book awards for Illustrators for children's books went to Priya Kuriyan.

The festival was held from November 14 to 17 in the city.

Why you should pay for quality journalism - Click to know more

Printable version | Nov 18, 2019 7:49:43 AM | <https://www.thehindu.com/books/writer-shanta-gokhale-honoured-with-lifetime-achievement-award-at-tata-literature-live/article30004155.ece>

© THG PUBLISHING PVT LTD.

Keywords:

Oxfam

Tata Trusts